More Than a Sign on the Wall

On Thursday, May 29, at noon in the TechRanch conference room, Dan Rice and Nate Hossner from PrintingForLess.com will coach you on how to create a Mission Statement for your company. They will cover:

~ Components of a Mission Statement ~ Why is a Mission Statement important ~ How to Develop a Mission Statement ~

Dan and Nate will also share insight on how to communicate and reinforce your Mission Statement so that it drives higher performance throughout employee engagement.

Dan Rice, VP-Corporate Affairs at PFL joined the team in 2003. Dan has taken on the roles of Legal Counsel, Information Technology Manager, Accounting Manager, Facilities Manager, Community Relations Lead, and the project lead for the location, financing, design and construction of their 46,500 square foot facility. Dan regularly speaks throughout the state on business and economic development related issues and is a Director of the Montana Chamber of Commerce.

Nate Hossner, Director of Training at PFL manages a 12-week training program for Technical Sales hires and has built a corporate university for all PFL employees to engage in business education and personal development. He holds a Business Management degree from MSU-Bozeman and has been with PFL since 2003.

Please RSVP to plee@techranch.org by Tuesday, May 27, 2008.

Note: This project is funded by a grant from the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA). SBA's funding should not be construed as an endorsement of any products, opinions, or services. All SBA-funded projects are extended to the public on a nondiscriminatory basis. Reasonable accommodations for persons with disabilities will be made if requested at least three days in advance.

This seminar is part of the TechRanch Entrepreneurial Knowledge (TREK) series. All TREK events are free of charge; all speakers/presenters volunteer their time and expertise. We encourage everyone to bring their own lunch to mid-day events because food is not provided by TechRanch. Our educational presentations are developed based on the requests and needs of our constituents; thus, if you have suggestions for future TREK events, please email them to plee@techranch.org. We look forward to hearing from you. Thank you.
